Your Sagittarius Zodiac Sign Guide: Everything to Know About the Adventurous Fire Sign

Unfiltered lovers of life filled with unparalleled wanderlust, the Archer is a true free spirit.

Fall's last hurrah brings us into the full-fledged holiday season, filled with festive meals, twinkling lights, and perhaps even the first snowfall. It's time to play, celebrate, socialize (albeit in an extra safe, perhaps physically distanced way this year), laugh, and entertain. It's also a time to be in the moment as much as possible, making the most of time with loved ones. It's Sagittarius season. Annually, approximately between November 22 and December 21, the sun moves through the ninth sign of the zodiac, Sagittarius, symbolized by the Archer.

Spanning most of the official holiday season, one of the most jubilant, magical, and playful times of the year comes to us courtesy of Sag, a fire sign associated with a love of life, over-the-top self-expression, adventure, learning, a zest for philosophizing, a positive outlook, seemingly organic fortune, and strong, direct opinions. These traits are seemingly organic fortune, and strong, direct opinions. These traits are owed to Sagittarius' ruling planet Jupiter, a benefic, or "good-doer," planet that oversees fortune, expansion, optimism, and big picture thinking.

A few spotlight-loving, outspoken Sagittarians: Chrissy Teigen, Janelle Monáe, Scarlett Johansson, Zoë Kravitz, Taylor Swift, Nicki Minaj, Tiffany Haddish, Anna Faris, and Christina Applegate. These celebs are all astrologically wired to go big or go home artistically and make their mark by making their uniquely entertaining voices heard in a dynamic way.

Here, everything you need to know about the entertaining, unfiltered fire sign.

Sagittarius Personality Traits

The spirited explorer of the zodiac

Those born between November 22 and December 21 can generally assume that their sun sign is Sagittarius. (It's not definitive, because the sun moves between signs on different days annually.) Also note that while we tend to refer to ourselves as our sun sign, it's just one detail of a natal chart, which is basically a unique snapshot of the sky when you were born. But it's a detail that helps color your core sense of self, identity, personal style, self-esteem, and confidence.

Typical sun in Sag traits include harboring an insatiable wanderlust that ideally results in globetrotting adventures and lifelong learning about cultures apart from their own; an inner compass that guides them to seek truth and stand up for what they believe is right, speaking their mind no matter what (often seemingly without running it through any sort of diplomacy filter before blurting it out); being able to step into the spotlight with ease and entertain crowds; a love of bold art and creative expression; and a natural exuberance and spiritedness that makes them the life of any party.

These characteristics reflect themes covered by the Ninth House of Adventure and Higher Learning, which Sagittarius rules. The Ninth House covers how you work to broaden your horizons, seek out new, eye-opening experiences, take risks, and pursue personal growth. It also deals with long-distance/international travel, politics, religion, morals, ethics, and high-minded conversation.

The mutable fire sign

Every sign is assigned a quality (cardinal, mutable, or fixed), which explains the sign's basic energy. There's a cardinal, mutable, and fixed sign within every element (fire, earth, air, water). Sag is the mutable one of the fire group, meaning they are flexible, open to going with the flow, and typically willing to hear all sides of an issue before making a decision, much like Virgo (earth), as well as Gemini (air) and Pisces (water).

Sagittarius' best personality traits:

Philosophical, curious, fun-loving, and determined to take life, love, and the world by storm, soaking up knowledge at every turn, you can be sure that the Sagittarians in your life will motivate you to get off the couch and embrace a YOLO-esque perspective. They are the multi-hyphenate entertainers of the zodiac, gifted and interested in everything from comedy to acting to songwriting. They generally strike those around them as gregarious, lively, dynamic, but, like everyone else, they have their dark moments. They just tend to cope by channeling their pain into their art. They're infatuated with soaking up all the knowledge they can, especially around other cultures, distant travel destinations, politics, and social justice. They were born with a naturally passionate, fiery voice that they often want to lend to causes that inspire and drive them. If you're dating a Sagittarius, they'll be unabashedly direct about their feelings, as this is one sign that finds pretty much zero value in playing games or beating around the bush.

Sagittarius' worst personality traits:

The mutable fire sign's ability to cut through BS and tell it like it is can be refreshing in some contexts — or downright cringe-worthy in others. Circumstances that might call for a certain amount of diplomacy or delicate action aren't exactly Sag's forte. And because expansive, magnifying Jupiter is the planetary force informing their M.O., they have a tendency to go overboard in just about any instance, be that by running up credit card debt or filling their calendar up with a few too many happy hours or nights out. And because they despise monotony, they might take risks that feel thrilling but are reckless. The key is for them to channel that desire for fire and wonder into their favorite creative art form or big picture conversations and brainstorming.

What Sagittarians Are Like in Love & Bed

Sagittarians' romance style

If your date has an adoration of no-holds-barred humor, a love of trying exotic foods and hopping flights to far-off destinations, suggests hitting a hiking trail or going horseback riding over tried-and-true drinks or dinner plans, and doesn't seem to have any interest in holding back from saying what they really believe and want, chances are you're seeing someone born under the influence of gung-ho, bold, wanderlust-filled Sagittarian energy. The fire sign is a direct, fiery, passionate force to be reckoned with, which is ideal for anyone who dreams of an adventurous, perhaps even globetrotting affair.

If you're looking to connect with a Sag in a lasting way, you might need a thick skin, as their tendency to embrace a direct, unfiltered communication style can come off as brash and, at worst, insensitive. On the other hand, they're lively, enthusiastic, and often brimming with an exuberance that can be downright infectious and thrilling. Loving a Sag means being up for their adoration of always learning, growing, exploring in a multitude of ways — quite often through experiences and fiery conversation.

Sagittarians' sexual style

Sag's go-getter spirit absolutely shows up in the bedroom. And given their associations with the Ninth House of Adventure and Higher Learning and Jupiter, the lucky planet that brings an amplifying effect to everything it touches, Sagittarians crave sexual experiences that will broaden their horizons and allow them to be unabashedly themselves. This could mean taking sex workshops with their partner in order to explore a fetish or even flirting with exhibitionism while on a camping trip. They'll also be the first in the zodiac to find out about a sexy trend happening in, say, Singapore or Reykjavík, that they'll then want to learn about and experiment with. And given their open-minded, independent point of view, they would certainly open to unconventional arrangements, like an open relationship.

Given the influence of "go-big-or-go-home" Jupiter, facing nothing more than a missionary, vanilla experience might bore a Sag into feeling turned off entirely. They would prefer that every part of sex contributes to making them feel more alive — physically, mentally, emotionally. Cue the lively, passionate debate, which might even border on outright head-butting, as foreplay. And given their penchant for blurting out their inner thoughts whenever they feel like it, they might be particularly vocal in the midst of the act, as well, offering up raunchy dirty talk. And speaking of dirty, Sag is also not one to shy away from making a mess (think body painting or lots of lube).

Scorpio Compatibility

Wondering how Sag matches up with your sign as a friend, a lover, a colleague, or in terms of any other one-on-one relationship? Here, their most harmonious partners, as well as conflict-triggering pairings:

Most compatible with:

Signs that share the same element tend to be the most in sync (e.g. two air signs, like Libra and Gemini). But in the case of one fire sign with the other, it can really go to one extreme or the other. Either you'll feel like your companionship breeds mutual passion, creativity, playfulness, and excitement, and/or you could be prone to hotheaded blow-ups, drama, and incessant conflict. Fire is also traditionally compatible with air, as the two elements share certain attributes, like being free-spirited, independent, speedy, and social.

That said, a Sag often hits it off with a similarly buoyant Leo, go-getter Aries, or free-spirited Aquarius.

Least compatible with:

Opposites can definitely attract — and that's often the case with Sag and Gemini. Both are lifelong learners who love to express themselves and share ideas with others. But Gemini's energy tends to be more light and curious, while Sag has an agenda, and in the end, this could cause them to feel out of sync with one another.

Sag and empathetic water sign Pisces are square (the most challenging aspect that can exist between two signs) one another. This is also the case for Sag and sensitive earth sign Virgo. Sag respects other mutable signs' ability to switch up their approach based on the way the wind is blowing, but emotionally, they're too changeable to solidify a connection, unless they share other harmonious aspects in their natal charts.

What If You Have Sagittarius Elsewhere in Your Chart?

As mentioned previously, the sun sign is one of many aspects of a natal chart. When you were born, the moon and all the planets in our solar system were in one of the 12 signs and a particular position — all of which help to inform your personality and areas of your life. Here's what it means if Sagittarius shows up in any of the main areas of your chart:

Sagittarius Moon

The moon, which spends about two to three days in each sign, influences your emotions and intuition. If it was in Sag at the time of your birth, you feel compelled to be direct, unfiltered, and unapologetically genuine when it comes to matters of the heart. Mind games or superficiality make you want to jump out of your skin.

Sagittarius Mercury

Mercury, which spends about two to three weeks in a sign, shapes your communication style. If it was in Sag when you were born, your appetite for knowledge is downright insatiable, and you speak directly from your heart. You're straightforward, optimistic, big picture-oriented, and seek out fiery, philosophical debate as a way to connect with others.

Sagittarius Venus

Venus, which remains in a sign for about three to five weeks, influences how you behave in relationships and how you attract others. If you were born with the planet of love and beauty in Sag, you want to feel like your closest relationships will help you broaden your horizons and see the world in a new, transformative, educational way. Experiential dates, like attending an immersive art exhibit or taking an impromptu road trip, are your jam.

Sagittarius Mars

Mars, which remains in a sign for six or seven weeks, affects your energy, strength, sexual style, and how you experience courage. If you were born while the fiery, dynamic, fighter planet was in mutable, fiery Sag, you won't shy away from going after whatever it is you want, be it a new job or love affair. They're playful, persuasive, blunt lovers of life who act and then think.

Sagittarius Ascendant (or Rising)

Your ascendant or rising sign influences how you present yourself to the world. As a Sagittarius ascendant, you come off as dynamic, magnetic, exciting, funny, and exuberant about life, love, and everything the world has to offer.

Upcoming Astrological Highlights for Sagittarius

November 21-December 21: While the sun moves through your sign, you'll get to revel in the annual month-long party that is Sag season. You'll be even more fired up to get after your personal goals and get a well-deserved burst of confidence to fuel your hard work.

December 1-20: Mercury moves through your sign, making it an ideal time to pitch that passion project, connect with lovers and friends both old and new, and share exactly what's in your heart in a way that will undeniably make an impression on those around you.

December 14: The new moon in Sagittarius is a special chance for you to key into a long-term goal and set yourself up for success by mapping out the game plan you'll need to enact to cross the finish. Your new moon forms a harmonizing angle to go-getter Mars in your fifth house of romance and self-expression, making it an ideal time to set intentions and make moves related to creativity and love.

December 15-January 8, 2021: Venus, which oversees romance, beauty, and money, moves through your sign during this period, urging you to wear your heart on your sleeve and literally rock styles that feel super on-brand and reflective of the message you want to share with the world. You'll also get the green light to connect on a more heartfelt level with friends, loved ones, and a significant other or potential partner.

December 19-May 13, 2021: Jupiter, your ruling planet, will move through your third house of communication. (For a recent point of reference, consider what happened from January 5, 2009 to January 17, 2010, as that was the last time the benefic planet spent time in this zone.) The huge planet brings an expansive effect to anything it touches, so your focus on gathering and sharing information, daily events, short-distance travel, and interactions with siblings will be amplified, helping you generate brilliant ideas and enjoy a day-to-day life that feels busy, social, and exciting.
